

Post work Corpse

Have students discuss this quote from the story, “I didn't quit breathing,” and have them compare and contrast quotes that they themselves have researched.

Have students write an essay on one of these clichés:

It's cheaper to keep her

When the cat's away the mice will play.

Have students take on the journalist role and interview someone who is divorced or comes from a broken home.