

Post work Zero

Basket of Burdens applied

Have students write anonymously on index cards 2 sentences about times that they have felt abandoned by a friend or family member.. Place the index cards in a bowl and hand each student another student's index card. Read sentences aloud and ask each if they would prefer that situation to the one they wrote down previously.

Have students write an essay on the phrase, “Hind sight is 20/20.”

Have students create a poster on the things they enjoy most about their times spent with their family.

Have students write a poem in iambic pentameter for their mothers.