

Printables
Snapshots From Home

Read the story. Please answer in full sentences.

Disposable Income

1. Is the protagonist a high academic achiever? What leads you to this conclusion?
2. What is the main character's financial status?
3. How is irony used in this work? Explain.
4. What is the main character's profession? What is her intended career path?
5. How does the protagonist's relationship with her mother effect her? Site examples.
6. How does the author use fore-shadowing in this work. Give evidence to support your answer.

7. What misconceptions does the main character have? Site examples.

8. How does the main character feel about her pediatrician? What leads you to feel this way?

9. What happens to the main character in the doctor's office that makes her feel ashamed?

10. Why must the main character name her lover(s)? How does this effect the “tone” or voice of the story?

11. What makes the protagonist confess?

12. What is the protagonist's new fear about marriage? What does this tell you about her character?

13. What does the protagonist reveal about the fear of telling her parents?

Due next Wednesday: Research and write a 3 page double-spaced essay about the statistics of human-trafficking in this country. Must be typed and all findings must be double-checked before you hand it in please.